

John Lilly

Navigability Assessment Procedures in Oregon

Biography

John Lilly is the Assistant Director of the Natural Resources Section of Oregon's Division of State Lands.

Presentation Abstract

John will be speaking about how the state of Oregon determines navigability of rivers and lakes through a program established in 1995. He will review the Oregon's rules and administrative procedures for making a final navigability status and how it relates to Oregon's ownership interests in waterways