

Managing Meandering Boundaries

Biography

Steve is a Utah Assistant Attorney General currently representing the Division of Oil, Gas & Mining. He previously represented the Utah State Land Board, Utah Division of State Lands & Forestry, and the Utah Department of Transportation. He has worked for the Utah Attorney General's Office since 1990.

Prior to joining the Attorney General's Office, Steve was in private practice for 13 years. He was the founder of the firm of Kapaloski, Kinghorn, Alder and Peters.

He graduated in 1970 from the University of Utah with a B.S. in Mining Engineering. He worked for four years as a mining/environmental engineer. He graduated with a J.D. Degree in 1977 from the University of Utah College of Law. Steve was the Associate Editor of the Journal of Contemporary Law from 1975 to 1976.