

Lorelei Langille

International Issues - Moderator

Biography

Lorelei Langille has been employed with the Department of Fisheries and Oceans (DFO) for 16 years. She started her career as a Primary Products Inspector, and then went on to be, at that time in Canada, one of the few female enforcement officers with the Conservation and Protection Branch of DFO. Lorelei is currently working as a Navigable Waters Protection Officer under the responsibility of the Canadian Coast Guard. Lorelei graduated with a Bachelor of Science from Mount Saint Vincent University, Halifax, Nova Scotia in 1978.