

Water Rights

Biography

Mike Quealy is with the law firm of Parsons Behle & Latimer where his practice concentrates primarily in the area of water law and related issues. Mike joined the firm in 2002. Prior to that time he was in the Natural Resources Division of the Utah Attorney General's Office from 1979 to 2000 and was chief of that division from 1988 to 2000. During those years, Mike represented the Utah State Engineer's Office, the Division of Water Resources, Utah's Interstate Streams Commissioner and several other agencies within the Department of Natural Resources.

Mike has served on the Litigation Action Committee of the Conference of Western Attorneys General, and is a member of the Legal Committee of the Upper Colorado River Commission.

Mike graduated from the University of Wyoming, College of Law in 1974.